

Privacy Policy

Logo Use

The logos of the VFW, Ladies Auxiliary VFW, and the Military Organizations are registered trademarks of their respective organizations. Use of the names and/or the logos without written permission is prohibited.

VFW Privacy Policy

This is the website of Post 2208 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, stationed at Waverly, Iowa.

We do not use this website to collect any personally identifiable information about you other than what you provide voluntarily. We may use such voluntarily provided information to improve our understanding of your interests, to improve our services, or to contact you. It is our policy not to share or disclose personal information of our visitors to third parties for the third parties' direct marketing purposes.

It is a good policy that if you do not want any personally identifiable information about yourself collected through this or any site, please do not provide it. Also, if you visit the web sites of any of our links, please consult their privacy policy.

Photographs on our web site are protected, and are not available to be copied. This is for the protection of our members and guests who may appear in these photos.

Our National Bylaws state that the names and addresses of the members of the VFW and its Auxiliaries shall be considered confidential and shall not be made available for commercial or political use. Therefore, no request for such a listing of our members will be honored.